

Operation Supervisor Jordan Beal

Jordan joined the Saginaw County Parks and Recreation Commission in December of 2017 as the Operations Supervisor. In his role, Jordan is responsible for operating and maintaining County Park facilities through developing and initiating maintenance and safety needs. He is also responsible for hiring and training staff to care for parks, patrons and facilities. Jordan is a graduate from Central Michigan University with a degree in Outdoor and Environmental Recreation with a minor in Management. Prior to Saginaw County, Jordan worked for Wilderness Inquiry as an Outdoor Educator leading outdoor education programs and guiding multi-day canoeing, kayaking, and camping adventures all over the United States. He has also guided high adventure backpacking, canoeing, and cycling trips for other outdoor organizations. Jordan has guided sea-kayaking trips in Apostle Islands National Lakeshore, canoe trips in the Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness, backpacking trips in Olympic National Park, and many more.

In his spare time, Jordan enjoys immersing himself in the beauty of our natural world in any way that he can and meeting new dogs. Whether it's canoeing, kayaking, backpacking, or fishing you can usually find Jordan doing something outdoors. Jordan lives in Saginaw with his wife Samantha and son Finn.

